Desiderata

Go placidly amid the noise and haste,
  and remember what peace there may be in silence.
As far as possible without surrender
  be on good terms with all persons.
Speak your truth quietly and clearly;
  and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant;
  they too have their story.
Avoid loud and aggressive persons,
  they are vexations to the spirit.
If you compare yourself with others.
  you may become vain and bitter; for always
  there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself.
Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.
Keep interested in your own career, however humble;
  it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time.
Exercise caution in your business affairs;
  for the world is full of trickery.
But let this not blind you to what virtue there is;
  many persons strive for high ideals;
  and everywhere life is full of heroism.
Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection.
Neither be cynical about love;
  for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment
  it is perennial as the grass.
Take kindly the counsel of the years,
  gracefully surrendering the things of youth.
Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune.
But do not distress yourself with imaginings.
Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness.
Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.
You are a child of the universe,
  no less than the trees and the stars;
  you have a right to be here.
And whether or not it is clear to you,
  no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.
Therefore be at peace with God,
  Whatever you conceive Him to be,
  and whatever your labors and aspirations,
  in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul.
With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams,
  it is still a beautiful world.
Be cheerful. Strive to be happy.

Mr. Allen Kinser,

We, the Annual Staff members, would like to dedicate the 1986 Rock to you. Without the leadership, guidance, hard-work, and dedication you have put forth, the 36th edition of the Rock would not have been possible. This is only a small gesture to express our sincere gratitude to you.

Bob:
AAAAy Dude,
What's happening!
Actually your a pretty nice guy and it's been
good knowing you and escaping
from being thrown out of school a couple of times. Be good and maybe you can have drafting next year. Maybe you can laugh or maybe you can jump or hit knees and kiss my rump.

Love

Buddy
Bowman

Glenn,
You are a nice, but crazy
guy that I have known since 8th grade. Remember all the crazy times, but most of all remember me, because I could never forget you. I wish you the best of my luck in every thing you do in life

Love,

Bud,
Well hell! another year gone
I can't believe it. Next year it'll be our turn to graduate. I can't wait. Well have ourselves a shindig. I don't ever forget the wild time we had in drafting this year. Especially the time we had the paints and I got into trouble with our girlfriends. I don't think that from then on I wouldn't let nobody talk me into dancing again. We need to stay in touch this summer and go fishing. Be cool bud, and keep that thing out of a knot.
